Land's End - John o'Groats 'RELAY WALK'

April / May 2016

Have you ever wanted to do a Land's End to John o'Groats walk, but the thought of completing the gruelling 900 or so miles was putting you off?

Well now's your chance to be part of an epic 'End-to-End' charity relay walk and possibly even win yourself a unique safari trip of a lifetime!

5 Teams - 50 Days - 1,000 People

Each one raising money for one of five thoroughly deserving causes to help protect endangered wildlife around the world.

Do you think you could take up the challenge?

We are looking for 1,000 people to give up just one day to walk a leg of the route as part of a unique relay Walk for Wildlife.

There are only 20 places available on each leg of the walk, so you are advised to reserve your place early.

WIN!

Join the walk for your chance to win a 10-day safari holiday of a lifetime
