

Cheetahs have unique spot patterns on their coats just like fingerprints.

SPEEDY CHEETAH FACTS

Cheetahs use their tails to control their steering when running at high speeds.

A cheetahs' 'tear marks' act like sunglasses to prevent glare when hunting during the day.

Cheetahs don't roar. Instead they growl, purr, chirp, bubble and bark.